On December 6, 2017, the undersigned, along with Tonya Rideout, NATOA's incoming Executive Director, and NATOA Board of Directors members Mike Lynch, Jodie Miller, Brian Roberts, Daniel Cohen, Mike Johnson, Michael Russo, Gabriel Garcia, and Ann Goldenberg met with Greg Cooke, Debra Jordan, David Furth, Lisa Fowlkes, Nicole McGinnis, Lauren Kravetz, Ken Carlberg, and Rochelle Cohen of the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau. Also attending the meeting were Gayle Radley Teicher and Carmen Scanlon of the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau, and Richard Lerner of the International Bureau.

During the meeting, we discussed a number of issues of concern to local governments regarding public safety communications, including the need for additional funding, the interplay between FirstNet and 911 services, an upcoming proceeding that will look at the impact of the recent hurricane season on public safety communications, transitioning to IP-based services, and the annual report on the collection and use of 911 fees.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206(b) of the Commission's rules, a copy of this letter is being electronically submitted in the record of these proceedings and provided to the Bureau participants. Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned with any questions.

Respectfully submitted,
